October 2023 "Building a Better World for Women and Girls"

President's Patter

With recent media coverage of youth crime, it can be easy to despair about the next generation.

At the recent Zonta District 22 Conference, I listened to the YWPA winner talk about her experience as a Zonta awardee and how the trust of adults had meant so much to her. Her story was inspiring: from an eight-year-old immigrant to an honours student at Monash University who is giving back to the community by volunteering and fundraising to support causes related to women.

After the conference, I visited my family in Cairns. I went to watch my granddaughters' Surf Life Saving training session at Yorkey's Knob. Late afternoon, the group of trainee life savers (10 - 15 years old) noticed one kite surfer struggling to get back to shore. They alerted the adults, who took his kite on their paddle board and helped this very tired and very grateful surfer back to safety.

In our last Zonta Club meeting, I was so proud of our Young Professional Members. I heard about the work that Belle had done with the submission for the GOA project and the upcoming High Tea promotion; I saw Sophie our newest member engaged, participating and contributing to the meeting; I appreciated Sarah's leadership with the students from CHAC who completed the latest Birthing Kit assembly.

As Zontians, we continue to support, encourage and celebrate the achievements of the young people – and as sung by the Great Jazz player Louis Armstrong:

"I watch them grow
They'll learn much more Than I'll ever know
And I think to myself
What a wonderful world"

Editorial

Inspired by Zonta District 22 Conference (where participants received this pin), I am pleased that this newsletter includes a summary of keynote speakers' addresses related to gender equal climate action.

Zonta International's Statement on Climate Change: A Gender Equality Issue highlights the importance of educating girls, having more women in parliament, and closing gender gaps in economic participation and responses to climate change. This biennium, ZI will work to embed climate actions into service projects; highlight how behaviour in one part of the world impacts another; and support clubs to educate and raise their voices about gender-equal climate action. Read about this important Zonta Cause: Zonta Says NOW

Jacinta

Zonta Brisbane East appreciates the significant assistance given by family and friends who are recognised as 'HonZons' - their support and practical assistance make our events and service projects successful.

HonZon Spotlight: Rob Fromm

Why am I a HonZon? I have been a willing participant in Zonta activities since my wife joined the Zonta Club of Warwick in 2009. There was always a fun atmosphere and friendship as we helped set up fundraising events – I've attended many breakfasts and movie premiers, and proud to walk in the annual Say No to Domestic Violence walks by Condamine River.

With Jacinta's transfer to Zonta Club of Brisbane East, I expected that I would still be able to assist in her club, and meet other Zontians and their partners. So, I willingly agreed to be rostered on Bunnings Sausage Sizzles – and was very surprised to receive my HonZon badge in 2021 (I was just doing my bit to support my wife!). I have attended a range of club fellowship events and fundraisers, and the ZSN walks in Brisbane City, and packed and carted Christmas Hampers for a Domestic Violence Shelter. Recently, I have been assisting with the Containers for Change fundraiser – as well as raising some dollars for Zonta, it's one way I can personally contribute to climate action by reducing landfill and promoting a circular economy.

I am keen to continue to support all the local projects in Zonta, and interested in how Say Now to Gender Equal Climate Action will be implemented in local projects. And what's more, through Zonta, I have made some great friends!

(Ed: Thanks Rob for your support, and for sharing your story and photo – please keep depositing those containers!)

Trivia Night: 15th November 2023, 6 p.m.

Please tell your friends who enjoy a burger and brain challenge to come to Grill'd Carindale for our next Trivia Night fundraiser. You purchase a burger and chips for $25, and Grill'd donate $10 from each purchase to Zonta. If you don't enjoy Trivia, please still come along and enjoy the meal and a chat with Zontians and friends.

For those who are helping with our fundraising via "Containers for Change" we now have a deposit number to make it easier for you. Just drop your bag of recyclables to the drop off centre and quote the number C10671310. The funds raised will then go direct into our Fundraising Account.

Do we need a target? Steady growth during August – As of 31 August, $66.40 has been raised; that's an additional 166 cans or bottles deposited during August.

Thank you! Aiming for $500 by end of March 2024, that's. $433.60 to go! Please keep canvassing your friends and family/organisations for additional deposits.

The Queensland Government set the date of 1 November 2023 to include wine and spirit bottles to ensure the container refund point network was fully prepared and ready to accept these for refunds and to give the manufacturers of these products time to comply with the requirements of the changes to legislation.

The Queensland Government has given wine and spirit manufacturers until January 2027 to display the 10-cent refund marking on their labels. During this grace period eligible glass wine and spirit bottles can be returned for a refund without the 10-cent mark. Wine and spirit bottles | Containers for Change (Ed: I think this means we can start collecting any wine and spirit bottles now and deposit after 1st November.

I am aware that Hearts of Purple, a registered charity that provides support to those in high risk DV situations, has raised $218,00 (as of 8th July 2023) – so every 10c counts! Please bring your bottles/cans to the October meeting, and I will deposit at a depot)

Service

Dignity Bags: Thanks to members' donations, we packed twenty handbags with personal toiletries at our September meeting. These will be given to Open Haven, which is a registered charity that provides a safe and confidential place for women who are survivors of domestic violence abuse. This service provides emotional and practical support, and assists women to access all available professional services. Our Dignity Bags project is just one way in which our Zonta Club gives practical support to women who are survivors of domestic violence.

Fellowship

'Yes, Yes, Yes': Our fellowship event last month was to attend this contemporary theatre production at La Boite. It is an innovative part-confession, part-documentary, and part-open conversation, that was created in New Zealand for (and with input from) teenagers, to explore healthy and respectful relationships, consent and sex. The production was sensitive, humourous and had great impact. Open discussion was facilitated by the actress after the play – and I was interested in the comments by teachers and school counsellors, including one who said that as a Love Bites facilitator, she could see how such a powerful creative tool would enhance Respectful Relationships programs. It was interesting that the Australian season of this production coincided with the introduction of comprehensive consent education across the Australian curriculum.

September Meeting

Our Guest Speaker was Councilor Lucy Collier, Morningside Ward. We are very appreciative of $500 donation that Lucy presented to us on the night. These funds will be allocated to printing Safety Cards – these are credit-card sized cards listing crisis and support services and the contact numbers for women escaping domestic violence.

Lucy offered our Club practical support through Morningside Ward office, and promotion through her newsletter and social media, and advice about accessing grants. She was interested in hearing about our projects, especially those within Morningside Ward, such as the Beverley Farley scholarship for a student graduating from Balmoral State High School, our partnership with Cannon Hill Anglican College to assemble Birthing Kits and Breast Cushions, our Dignity Bags Project supporting women accessing services through Open Haven, and the current project to refurbish a Soft Room at Morningside Police Station.

Lucy spoke about homelessness within the Ward, and the Brisbane City Council Homeless Initiatives: Homeless Connect event (the next is scheduled 3rd November 2023) and Public Space Liaison Officers (Housing and homelessness | Brisbane City Council)

District 22 Conference: Keynote Speakers

Guest Speaker: Pip Courtney – Australian Women and Climate Change

Pip is well known agricultural journalist who joined Landline in 1993 as a reporter, and has hosted this program since 2012. She highlighted stories that have been featured on Landline, in which rural women were noted for their 'big picture' view, their ability to think innovatively for long-term benefits and achieve a positive impact for the next generations.

Pip challenged us to think and act within 3 P's – what can we do Personally, Professionally, and Politically. She referred to the 'just do it' attitude that was adopted by the Land Care initiative when it commenced in 1986; she stated that her follow-up reports over the years have shown actual changes in ecosystems, land rehabilitation, and sustainability. Land Care acknowledges that we may not be able to plant 10000 trees, but if we can plant 1 or 10, that is better than none. So when thinking personally, persevere as little and repeated effort can lead to changes that make long-term difference. She urged Zontians as women in leadership roles to promote climate action in our families, clubs, workplaces, communities.

Guest Speaker: Jane Milburn- Build a Better Wardrobe.

Jane Milburn, agricultural scientist and communicator, is the founder of Textile Beat and author of Slow Clothing: Finding meaning in what we wear. Jane's creative approach to fashion affirms her focus on upcycling for pleasure, regenerating, and living simply. Her Churchill Fellowship extended her knowledge and commitment to reducing textile waste and enhancing wellbeing.

Jane recognises that not everyone is able to sew, and therefore she has expanded the concept to include other ways to embrace slow clothing. She urged us to choose natural fibres, highlighting that two-thirds of clothing is now synthetic, shedding approximately 2000 microplastic particles per garment per wash. Purchase from the opportunity shops, learn to mend clothes, actually say 'no' to making any further purchases (say for 6 months) – these are personal challenges we can take up to make that difference.

Her slow clothing manifesto outlines some basic ways that consumers can create change by rethinking their fashion choices:

Textile Beat | slow clothing | dress with conscience | natural fibres
